

Curriculum Connections for B.C.

Subject Area: Social Studies

Grade Level	Section/Strand	Prescribed Learning Outcome
K-1	Society and Culture	Students will describe difference between individual's needs and wants
	Politics and Law	Students will describe their roles, rights and responsibilities in school
2-3	Politics and Law	Students will explain their roles, rights and responsibilities within the community
	Economy and Technology	Students will describe ways in which communities are interdependent
4	Society and Culture	Students will describe how people's basic needs are met in a variety of cultures
5	Politics and Law	Students will explain citizenship in terms of participation in the community, province, country and world
	Economy and Technology	Students will analyze the relationship between development of communities and their available natural resources
6	Society and Culture	Students will describe ways social and economic organizations satisfy needs and wants in a variety of cultures
		Students will describe daily life, work, family structures, and gender roles in Canada and the world
	Politics and Law	Students will compare individual rights and social responsibilities in various cultures
		Students will demonstrate understanding of global citizenship
		Students will demonstrate awareness of the United Nations' human rights initiatives
11	Social Issues	Students will recognize the importance of both individual and collective action in responsible global citizenship
	Political Issues	Students will describe and assess Canada's participation in world affairs
	Economic Issues	Students will demonstrate awareness of disparities in the distribution of wealth in Canada and the world
	Environmental Issues	Students will explain the environmental impact of economic activity, population growth, urbanization, and standard of living

Subject Area: Home Economics

Grade Level	Section/Strand	Prescribed Learning Outcome
8	Addressing Needs and Wants	Students will identify a range of resources that can be used to meet needs and wants of individuals and families
		Students will identify challenges that individuals or families may face in meeting their needs and wants
	Nurturing Growth and Development	Students will demonstrate an awareness of how growth and development at each stage of life can be nurtured
		Students will demonstrate an awareness of how growth and development at each stage of life can be nurtured
		Students will propose ways to provide care giving and nurturing for others
9	Addressing Needs and Wants	Students will propose ways to address challenges that might be faced when meeting needs and wants
		Nurturing Growth and Development
	Nurturing Growth and Development	Students will describe how growth and development during the childhood years can be nurtured
		Students will analyze factors that affect family and professional care giving globally
		Addressing Needs and Wants
10	Addressing Needs and Wants	Students will identify socio-economic factors that affect individuals and families as consumers
		Students will demonstrate an awareness of the global implications of decisions that individuals and families make about their needs and wants
	Working with Food Resources	Students will explain the significance of nutrients with reference to special dietary needs
		Nurturing Growth and Development
11	Needs and Wants of Individual and Families	Students will examine theories of human needs as they apply to individuals and their families
		Students will examine factors that influence how individuals and families meet their needs and wants
	Human Growth and Development	Students will analyze influences that have an impact on growth and development during adolescence
		Students will analyze the services that might be used in care-giving situations for adolescents
		Students will identify care-giving behaviours that promote a healthy, nurturing environment
12	Families in Society	Students will identify issues facing families in a multicultural and global society
		Students will identify issues facing families in a multicultural and global society
	Needs and Wants of Individual and Families	Students will evaluate community resources that help families meet their needs and wants
		Students will design strategies to provide for family needs in crisis situations
	Human Growth and Development	Students will evaluate factors that affect human growth and development